Art Unit: 1655

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-6, 11-16 & 25, drawn to a method to identify segregating mutations, classified in class 800, subclass 22.
 - II. Claims 7-9, drawn to a method to identify mutations following treatment with mutagens, classified in class 435, subclass 441.
 - III. Claim 10, drawn to a method to identify a human genetic sequence corresponding to a segregating mutation, classified in class 935, subclass 77.
 - IV. Claims 17-18, drawn to a genetically altered mouse, classified in class 800, subclass 9.
 - V. Claims 19-24, drawn to a non-human animal with segregating mutations, classified in class 800, subclass 8.
2. Inventions I and II & III are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions have different modes of operation because they are methods having different method steps, different functions, different effects and because they have a different results such as identification of segregating mutations (invention I), identification of mutations following mutagenic treatment (invention II), and identification of human genetic sequence (invention III).
3. Inventions I-III and IV & V are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process such as micro injection.

4. Inventions II & III and IV & V are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions have different method steps and different effects as stated above.

5. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

6. A telephone call was made to Bennett J. Berson on August 6, 1999 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement. Mr. Berson requested a written restriction be mailed.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
